A PLEASANT EVENING.

The Reception to The Normal College Girls Last Night.

The reception, given by the Epworth League of West Market Street M. E church, South, complimentary to the Methodist young ladies of the Normal and Industrial college, was a decided success.

About 75 girls from the college, and a very good number of young men from the city were in attendance, and the evening was passed in social enjoyment.

Light refreshments, consisting of whipped cream, crackers and olives, were served, seemingly enjoyed by all.

The reception committee was faithful in discharging its duty, which was to introduce the young people.

The occasion will certainly be long remembered by at least a few and possibly by many.

The Bazaar On Church Street.

The Pauline Little Missionary Society had a delightful afternoon and evening for their entertainment which was held in Mrs. Royster's sweet home and resulted in something less than $30 for their treasury. To their hostess they are indebted for many favors and lavish kindness, and it seemed to be enjoyed by all.

The little ladies had quite a festive time over their preparations and find it so pleasant to work for the missionaries "in His name" that they feel encouraged to try it another year. They are heartily grateful to all who assisted in making it a success and especially to the editors for kindly publishing their notices.

A Splendid Show.

"An American Heiress," the society drama, presented by the Peruchi-Beldeni company at the Academy last night, was, to cover the ground in short, a splendid show. The parts were all well taken and superbly handled. Miss Beldeni, the heroine, was the centre of attraction. The costuming was elegant throughout. Tonight closes the week's engagement of this excellent company in our city, when they will play "My Partner." Each paid 30 cent ticket for tonight, if purchased before six o'clock, admits a lady free.

THE DISMAL SWAMP CANAL.

Delegation Urging Appropriation For Its Improvement.

IMPORTANT LINK IN WATERWAYS

A Southern Representative's Opinion of President McKinley—Gen. Wade Hampton in Washington.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 17—Among the many prominent delegations which appeared Thursday morning before the the Rivers and Harbors committee of the house was one which was granted a hearing for the purpose of urging the appropriation of a sum for the improvement of the Dismal Swamp canal.

Among the members of the delegation is Mr. W. B. Brooks, Jr., the president of the Lake Drummond Canal and Water Company, of Baltimore, Maryland. Mr. Brooks in speaking upon the subject Thursday night stated that the improvement of the canal had been virtually promised while its construction was going on, and that the chief engineer of the United States army has recommended the dredging and widening of the Pasquotank river, and Croatan Sound, and that a bill introduced by Representative Skinner, of North Carolina, appropriating $172,900 for the work has been pending for some time. The improvements demanded of Congress, according to Mr. Brooks, are urgently needed, as the canal forms an important link in the waterways between Chesapeake Bay and Albemarle Sound. If improved as contemplated by the delegation now in Washington they believe the canal will become an important and valuable stream, as it would be of great benefit to small steamers engaged in a coastwise trade, and also would admit of the navigation of the canal by large vessels, including government vessels. The improvement will also give North Carolina easy access to the thriving and growing seaport towns of Norfolk and Newport News.

Mr. Brooks returned to Baltimore yesterday morning. He is hopeful that the committee on Rivers and Harbors will make a favorable report upon the pending bill now before the committee, introduced by Representative Skinner, of North Carolina.

President McKinley's speech at Atlanta, in which he referred to the care of Confederate graves by the citizens of the north, as well as of the south, has caused much comment. Southern men generally approve the suggestion of the president and would like to see his wish in this particular gratified.

A prominent southern member of the house of representatives in speaking upon the subject said yesterday that the suggestion would be approved by the majority of the southern people, who likewise approved his course in the matter of the recent troubles in North and South Carolina. The congressman said that if it were not for some of the southern appointments of President McKinley, particularly the appointing of negro officials, that he would become beyond doubt the most popular man in the republican party, to the people of the south. The appointments in the south, he thought, had been the result of political influence which had been brought to bear upon the president, rather than from any desire on the part of the president to humiliate the south.

General Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, is in the city for a few days. He called yesterday afternoon at the war department and met several of the department officials, including Secretary Alger.

Representative Elliott, of South Carolina, has introduced in the house a bill to authorize the president to appoint George I. Middleton, of South Carolina, an ensign in the United States navy. The young man served with distinction as a naval cadet, on one of the United States vessels. He was in the city the other day, and accompanied by Col. Elliott went to the white house, where he was cordially received by the president.

Safe Blowers Convicted.

The Aberdeen postoffice safe crackers, who were traced down by Postoffice Inspector H. T. Gregory, of this city, were yesterday convicted of that crime in the federal court at Raleigh. Their names are Reid, Wright and Miller. The latter, who is regarded as the meanest of the three, turned state's evidence and was released, but arrested again as he stepped from the court room on a charge of robbing the postoffice at Murfreesboro on April 18th, about two weeks after the Aberdeen robbery, and committed in default of $1,000 bond. Reid and Wright each get five years in the penitentiary.

A Pretty Safe.

A new and valuable addition to the furniture of the office of Dr. J. T. Johnson, the eye specialist, is a pretty safe in which the genial and efficient doctor will hereafter place his valuables. The new safe is one one of the prettiest we have ever seen, having been finished according to order. It is not out of place, here to remark that Dr. Johnson's office is one of the neatest and most tastily arranged, to be found anywhere Neatness, efficency and promptness—and an ad in the Telegram—has made a safe a necessity.

On account of a strike at the factory Thacker & Brockmann received a shipment of men's four dollar tan shoes way behind time. Of course the manufacturer had to make a concession in the price and as Thacker & Brockmann want these shoes to move off quickly, they have made the price $3.00 straight, If you want a pair of the very best, new up-to-date winter $4.00 tan shoes at $3.00, now is your chance.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C. Dec. 17

Rev. Mr. Goodman will preach tomorrow morning and evening in the Presbyterian church instead of Jamestown as he usually does on that Sunday. Usual services at all of the other churches.

Will Cox got the ends of two fingers on his left hand badly lacerated this morning on the shaper at the Eagle Furniture Factory.

The large French plate glass windows have been put in the new buildings opposite the postoffice.

Alex Woolstencroft, Fulda, Mina., who has been here several weeks hunting quail, left last night for Thomasville, Ga. He was so well pleased with High Point and her people that he wants to move his family here soon.

The belated trains last night caused a little trouble again with our little carriers. There has been some trouble with all of the trains the last two days. The northbound local freight was 12 hours late yesterday. We trust that we will have no more trouble with these late trains.

One "so many" candle power can now be seen outside of a building. It is at the depot. It certainly must feel very lonesome these dark nights by itself.

Part of the shifting engine was derailed near the factories this morning which blocked the Asheboro train and delayed No. 36.

The Enterprise yesterday was double its size and very interesting.

Mr. Perkins the Bell telephone man is in the city. He says he has been misrepresented.

Is there any ordinance limiting the time of trains blocking Main street here? If so, why is it not enforced.

One of the officers here stated that the street force has been ordered three times to fill the ditch in the sidewalk we mentioned a few days since.

THE ANDREWS OPERA CO.

The Opening Bill at the Opera House Next Friday Night.

The appearance of the Andrews Opera company at the Opera House Dec. 23rd and 24th will give our people an opportunity of hearing the finest musical organization now traveling. There repertoire embraces the choice opera "Martha," "Cavaliera Rusticana," "Giropie Giropla," "Bohemian Girl" and "Pirate of Penzance." It is readily understood that nothing but the finest organization of artists could handle such plays. Seats on sale Monday at Farriss' drug store. Admission, $1.00. No extra charge for reserved seats.

Our music loving friends in High Point, will do well to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this celebrated company. They can leave home on the noon train, Saturday and attend the matinee, and return on evening train. It is a chance of a life time to hear a great combination of artists in grand opera.

A New Business.

Mr. Robert Mebane, of this city, who has been travelling for a drug house for several years, has secured the position of state manager for A. Kliptein & Co., of New York, the largest manufacturers of dyestuffs in America. They will establish an office in Greensboro with Mr. Mebane in charge, for whom we wish success.

GENERAL MERRITT'S OPINION

He Arrived In New York This Morning.

IS ON A DIPLOMATIC MISSION.

Talks Guardedly, But Thinks The New Territory Can Be Handled To Our Advantage.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Dec. 17—General Merritt arrived on board the Lucania this morning. He praises the work of the American soldiers in the Philippine campaign and thinks the government can handle the new territory to advantage.

The general talks very guardedly, however, and said his was a diplomatic mission. He will visit the president but said he would not go to Washington until Mr. McKinley returns from his southern trip, which means that he wishes to see him, and not the secretary of war, first.

When he left Manila he says Admiral Dewey's health was excellent. He thinks twenty or thirty thousand soldiers will be required to keep the peace in the Philippines. One half of these can be secured in the Philippines. The climate there is excellent and healthful. General Merritt says Aguinaldo and his advisers are very shrewd.

There is yet room for more cotton manufactories in the state of North Carolina. She leads all southern states yet she only manufacturers about one-half the cotton she produces. North Carolina produced this year 646,776 bales and manufactured 334,873 bales We hope soon to see the entire product of the state manufactured within her borders.

Mr. Pearson, the present congressman from the Ninth district, who was recently defeated by Mr. Crawford, will contest the latter's right to the seat. He sees little but the race line in the election. He says: "The campaign was very sickly colored. Red shirts and blood red oratory made it lurid, if not sanguinary in spots. The conflagration which swept over the state started from the scratching of a single match. A nondescript governor gathered and piled the kindling wood; the negro wretch Manly applied the match; democrats fanned the flames; passion did the rest." Really Mr. Pearson is quite complimentary to prominent members of his own party. Governor Russell and Ex-editor Manly will no doubt very greatly appreciate the congressman's kindly reference to them. The democrats, who did the fanning act, are entirely satisfied with the conflagration.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Remember Him.

Editor of Telegram—In appreciation of the valuable service rendered the democratic party in the last campaign by the old line republican, whose articles appeared in the Telegram, the leading democrats should remember him and the candidates especially this Christmas for those valuable services by making him feel that his efforts were not in vain for good government in North Carolina. We learn that he made his word good by voting the entire democratic ticket without a scratch, Let him by all means be remembered with a good number of Christmas gifts from the party as he is a very deserving gentleman. Many Democrats.

Music may have charms to soothe the savage, but it is the popular airs that give him that tired feeling.
There is nothing, however, that will make a man so downright tired as to tackle a big Christmas turkey with a carving knife that is dull enough to suggest that the cook uses it all the rest of the year in splitting kindling wood. When you have bought your Christmas turkey, let your next move be to Odell's, where they are selling Carvers that are fine, Carvers that are medium, Carvers that are cheap, but all of good material, warranted to cut.
